

Complaints, Appeals and Compliments Policy

Scope and Purpose of Policy

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that all complaints, whether about teaching and learning or complaints relevant to GTG services/practices/operations, are responded to promptly, fairly and effectively to the best of our ability and within the resources of GTG. We take the opportunity to learn from every complaint. We also ensure we have a robust mechanism to collect complaints and compliments on the service we offer.

This policy applies to all learners and potential learners for all learning programmes regardless of mode or location of study.

Policy Statements

We will do our best to ensure that all learners, on and off site, have a successful and enjoyable experience. We are also committed to serving the wider business and social community in order to ensure continuous improvement in all our work.

We recognise that sometimes we do not always achieve our best. Sometimes, mistakes are made and things are not done as well as they should be. We have a commitment to our learners, employers and stakeholders to ensure that any complaints they may have about our service are dealt with fairly, efficiently and effectively. All complaints raised, activity undertaken during investigations and outcomes are used within our continuous development process to actively improve our performance.

This Policy is underpinned by several key principles:

Learners who access GTG must:

- Be free from discrimination by fostering approaches that tackle prejudice and promote tolerance.
- Have a platform to achieve their potential and encourages participation
- Able to engage in respectful and supportive practices that support overall wellbeing which is central to our vision and goal
- Be stimulated to develop the skills they need to enable successful ongoing progression throughout their respective lives

In order to fulfil its responsibilities under this policy, GTG will:

- Make clear to learners how to complain when things go wrong.
- Make clear that learners and others know what to do when they want to make us a compliment.
- Put procedures in place so that complaints are dealt with in a timely and thorough manner.
- Put procedures in place to enable us to share compliments with relevant staff and interested parties.
- Ensure that provision is in place to differentiate between low level and more serious complaints.
- Ensure that we maintain confidentiality in line with our Safeguarding and Data Protection policies.
- Put into place specific timescales to respond to complaints.
- Train staff and inform learners with regards to the procedure.
- Make clear within the procedure the provision to appeal.
- Monitor the quality of management of complaints.
- Analyse and review complaints on a regular basis to support the continuous improvement of our service.
- Set up procedures where complaints and compliments will be regularly reported on to the senior team.
